1 Rare large 10 ¼ creamware punch bowl "John Adams - President of the United States". American ship in color with owners (or captains) initials JHB below. Soldier with foot on British lion - "By Virtue and Valour We Have Freed Our Country..." Washington and Franklin next to map of the United States. Fifth transfer (not shown) is woman with anchor. Superb unrestored condition. A few tiny 1/16" to 1/8" chips and glaze flakes hardly worth mentioning. Great color - sorry the ship view looks a bit yellowish in photo - entire bowl is creamy white with bold transfers. 16,000.
2 Wonderful large 19th century powderhorn with superbly detailed high relief carving. First scene "Landing of Miles Standish in 1623 at Weymouth". On other side "Indians Attack and Burn Deerfield Sept 1673". Spout is large animal head. Threaded wood screw plug for filling. Overall 16" across ends, superb condition. 3,950.
3 The best Kentucky Derby item I have ever had. Gorgeous litho 22 X 27½ (sight) in nice frame 28 X 34. Depicts Old Rose Bud, Winner of the 1914 Derby, from a painting by famed illustrator R Atkinson Fox (printed signature in grass at lower right). Overall excellent condition - a bit of scattered speckles of minor foxing. Spectacular! 6,250.
4 Outstanding French neoclassical bust of Washington circa 1830's. Cast bronze bust on marble and gilt brass base, overall 9¼. Engraved plaque reads (in French) Liberty - Geo Washington - Commanding General of the Armies of the United States of America". Superb condition. 4,950.

This is believed to be the only nice condition Liverpool jug known that depicts this most famous of all American ships. At the time Dave Arman published Anglo American Ceramics in 1998, the only known example of this excessively rare transfer was owned by Bill Kurau (see Arman C18), but on that piece the name was in faint gilt that was all but obliterated. The example offered here has had some minor restoration that is invisible - my restorer is very good. Appearance is pristine. 22,500.

in the realm to-day has choice of the easy road or the hard to road?
much concern for his own estate,
would sell his soul to remain in the sun?
let him depart, nor look on our dead.
Kipling asks nothing of any man more than our Kipling himself has done.

Rudyard Kipling.

This fixed price catalog #63 is a departure from my normal format.

About half the catalog (250 items) is comprised of historical ceramics from the 1760's to the 1940's. Most have American subject matter, but there is a great selection of early English and European items as well.
